Compilation of Ron Paul Writings & Speeches A Great Way to Keep the Revolution Growing

By Michael Collins Piper

Rep. Ron Paul (R-Tex.) doesn't intend to fade away, despite Sen. John McCain's apparent lock on the Republican presidential nomination. That makes the release of an all-new, 276-page assemblage of some of Dr. Paul's more significant writings, The Ron Paul Revolution, all the more timely.

Some of the chapter titles illustrate the broad scope of the material appearing within: Big Government Run Amuck, Freedom From Government, Health Privacy, Dollars & Debt, Death to Taxes, Immigration and the Welfare State, Constitutional Foreign Policy, Gun Owner Rights, and War and Peace

What makes this book particularly valuable at this time (in the wake of Paul's big splash in the presidential race) is that this volume is an ideal way to introduce Paul's Constitution-based point of view— that is, good old-fashioned traditional Republicanism (as opposed to the corrupt big government "compassionate conservatism" of George W. Bush and his warmongering neo-conservative allies)—to Americans who might not otherwise be familiar with what the Ron Paul Revolution is all about.

A lot of people have heard about Ron Paul, but this book is an effective tool in bringing his message to your friends and family members, a great way to "win converts" and help build an even bigger base of support for future "Ron Pauls" when they enter the political arena.

With a foreword by Charlotte Iserbyt, author of the popular work, The Deliberate Dumbing Down of America, the all-time classic expose of the corruption and decline of the American education system, The Ron Paul Revolution is a primer for real patriots and will (like Ron Paul's point of view) stand the test of time.With 350 index entries, the book is thus a quick guide to the congressman's views on many topics, and you'll find it a handy guide for your own discussion of political issues.

The book is available at $22.95 per copy (paperback) from Brandywine House, P.O. Box 638, Cheltenham, Maryland 20623 or call 1-866-656-7583 toll free. Also, you can order an on-line e-book version at stores.lulu.com/brandywinehouse.
